Lead Agency Name	Award	Lead Agency Description	Entity Type	County
Access Support Network	$541,201	Monterey Community Response Team (CRT) will respond to substance use disorder (SUD) and other mental health crises with compassion and practical solutions by mobilizing community and peer resources alongside law enforcement. CRT will divert people in need toward healthcare and supportive services rather than incarceration, resulting in improved health outcomes and social justice.	Nonprofit Community Based Organization	Monterey
Alhambra Police Department	$245,659	Increase capacity of the Alhambra Homeless Outreach Mental Evaluation Team (HOME Team) by adding additional staff to directly connect individuals experiencing mental health crises with services; provide behavioral health training to first responders and engage community stakeholders to divert 9-1-1 calls to HOME Team's co-response program.	Law Enforcement	Los Angeles
Alliance for Community Wellness	$516,001	The Alliance for Community Wellness will develop a multidisciplinary Mobile Assessment and Transportation Unit that will co-respond with officers in the community to divert people with mental illness and SUD who are arrested for misdemeanors away from the criminal justice system to a navigation center for respite and supportive services.	Nonprofit Community Based Organization	Alameda

BHJIS Grantees 3.2022

CA Dept of Corrections – Division of Adult Parole Operations	$466,500	The Behavioral Health Reintegration (BHR) Unit provides specialized clinical case management services to roughly 13,000 high risk/high need parolees with mental health and substance use issues statewide. A grant award would expand BHR's capacity to provide more accessible and meaningful client care by augmenting office-based services with field-based ones, including co-responding with parole agents.	State Agency	Statewide
California State University Long Beach Research Foundation	$432,965	As a team of case managers and police officers, Campus Assessment and Stabilization Team (CAST) will assess and stabilize crisis situations through a humanistic, trauma-informed approach that will attempt to reduce the need for hospitalizations and use of force while connecting individuals to support services that will sustain their wellbeing.	University	Los Angeles
Chaffey Community College District	$310,970	The Chaffey College Police Department (CCPD) in collaboration with Mental Health partners will create a School Threat Assessment Crisis Response, called the Higher Education Assessment Team (HEAT). A successful model already proven with similar teams operating throughout the Los Angeles Community College District.	College	San Bernardino
Chinatown Service Center	$156,630	The Chinatown Service Center (CSC) will provide telehealth iPads to the Monterey Park Police Department, and within two school districts. The tablets will connect directly to CSC clinicians trained in de-escalation, to assist with mental health crises. The purpose is to prevent or reduce risk of justice involvement for youth and adults.	Nonprofit Community Based Organization	Los Angeles

City of Fort Bragg Police Department	$222,348	Fort Bragg Police Department will establish a collaborative partnership between local police and the mental health community to design and implement an integrated mental health response process that avoids the justice system by engaging the most appropriate mental health services for people in need in the community.	Law Enforcement Agency	Mendocino
City of Half Moon Bay	$180,000	The CARES Program is a collaboration between the City of Half Moon Bay, Sheriff's Department and the Public Safety Communication Center by developing a community-based response targeting low-risk crisis calls to 911, which will be redirected for a compassionate and dignified response to the CARES team, rather than emergency personnel and law enforcement.	City Government	San Mateo
City of Vallejo Police Department	$286,957	The Vallejo Police Department, with its partners, will conduct a large-scale community needs assessment to track progress and identify gaps in current mental health and substance use crisis response, and develop a co-response service model to ensure Vallejo has access to trauma-informed care for mental health- or substance use-related crises.	City Government	Solano
City of Watsonville	$481,327	This project will improve the City of Watsonville's community safety and wellness with the creation of a multidisciplinary, trauma-informed, holistic, public health-centered, prevention/treatment-focused, socially and racially equitable, co-response system. Substance use/mental health crisis response will be coordinated, comprehensive, and culturally responsive (rather than producing additional trauma/entry into the criminal justice system).	City Government	Santa Cruz

County of Santa Barbara Department of Behavioral Wellness	$700,000	Santa Barbara County is proposing a three-pronged approach: 1) support the implementation of a co-response program with the Santa Maria Police Department, 2) create a sustainable Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) training program including a Naloxone component, and 3) identify a process for collecting and using data for cross-agency care coordination and program assessment.	County Behavioral Health Agency	Santa Barbara
Downey Police Department	$409,656	The Downey Police Department, in collaboration with the Los Angeles Department of Mental Health, seeks to partner together to better serve and offer diversion programs to those affected by serious mental illness, substance use disorder, and homelessness.	Law Enforcement Agency	Los Angeles
El Dorado County Probation Department	$172,960	The proposed capacity building project will develop data collection and sharing mechanisms across partner agencies that will better facilitate a warm hand-off to behavioral health services and help increase referrals into the pre-trial diversion program. The project will result in (1) a process and technology plan, that will ultimately enable the county to procure a software developer; and (2) align workflow processes and department practices for the data collection, sharing, and reporting. Goal: Increase connections to treatment, thereby reducing justice system involvement for individuals with substance use disorders (SUD) / serious mental illness (SMI).	County Probation	El Dorado
City of Hayward	$389,260	Hayward seeks to demonstrate the Hayward Evaluation and Response Teams (HEART) Program to build capacity for and implement a high-quality trauma-informed, service-appropriate co-responder program that reduces violence and diverts individuals from justice-involvement.	City Government	Alameda
